Dear Client:

Thank you very much for your confidence in asking the Law Offices of Michael S. Cho to represent you in your immigration case, seeking an I-601/I-601A waiver. We understand the stressful nature of navigating through the immigration process. We know that your case is extremely important to you, and want to assure you that it is equally important to us. We are here to help you complete the process in a timely and efficient manner. We value you as our client.

Preparing the required documentation can be time consuming and challenging. However, obtaining this information at the outset is critically important to avoid delays in the application process. Accompanying this letter are instructions explaining how to prepare various statements and what documents you will need to collect. Providing as much information as possible at the beginning of the process saves precious time and strengthens the waiver application.

While the information and documentation requested may appear lengthy, each piece of documentation is required for us to accurately portray your case. Providing accurate and complete information is crucial to the success of your appeal. Please carefully review and follow the instructions provided.

If you have any questions whatsoever, please feel free to contact me at any time via telephone or e-mail. Again, I look forward to working with you towards the successful completion of your immigration goals.

Very truly yours,

Michael S. Cho, Esq.
